INTERVIEW WITH THE PRESIDENT OF UNITAR STUDENT REPRESENTATIVE COUNCIL 21/22

ARIF HAIKAL

Assalamualaikum and hello, UNITARians!

The SRC term of 2021/22 is thankfully winding up to a close and while life felt like it's moving at a snail's pace in some moments, this one literally went off like a speeding bullet. And then suddenly a new semester (and upcoming term) is upon us, which means new beginnings and the utmost attempts for all betterment. A good way to start taking the first step is by reflecting the past, which is why exactly this UNITAR Digital Magazine initiative can be considered as a breakthrough launching pad for significant improvements & memorabilia recognition. Acknowledgements should also be given to the Marketing Department for their outrageous contributions, along with the Student Activity Department somehow as their green lights allowed for the initiative to shift from the first gear to a push of the Nitrous Oxide button.

With the Fast & Furious reference being made in the last sentence, it is therefore hoped that this magazine is not just a one-time thing and there will be sequels alluding to this precedent launch. Let the legacy remains and keep moving fast, and furiously if it may. Once again, thank you so much to the people involved directly (or indirectly, really) in the formations and makings of this piece of artistry. Always look at the brighter side as long as your Sun still shines and be rightfully proud of your UNITARian status. All the best everyone!

“Greetings! Welcome to October 2017 semester.” I still remember those words like they were just uttered yesterday. Time flies so fast, as it’s been five years since I came here all the way from Sabah to pursue my tertiary study in UNITAR International University.

Oh hello there! :D Eyka here and it’s a pleasure to meet you ‘magazine’-ly. Alhamdulillah, my experiences in UNITAR have really helped me in my career path and prepared me for the fights in the working world. All thanks to the education, the experience and the people in UNITAR! For me, UNITAR is like my second home - especially during MCD where I was away from my family for months.

With the right support system, you can definitely excel ahead though, so hwaiting!

As an alumni, now I can actually claim that “University years really are indeed the best years of my life,” and I say this from the heart! I am so glad that my four years in UNITAR made me feel like was spending time with family. I would like to say thank you, UNITARians, for letting me grow up professionally and personally in such a wonderful environment. You know who you are, so thank you! To my juniors, your days as a student will go very quickly, even too quickly, so make sure your university experience is fulfilling, rewarding and most of all, fun! <3

Jerome Sagun Manaois Diploma in Culinary Arts Semester 6

Hi! I'm Jerome Manaois, from the Philippines, currently taking my second degree here in Malaysia. I am a nurse by profession but currently studying culinary arts which is quite the opposite. I am also a part-time photographer. You are probably wondering why I do so many things. I believe that we have all the potential to be multi-tasking, whether it be our profession or our passion. Education is the best gift you can give to yourself, so never stop chasing your dreams! Multi-task like me because the world has so many things to offer if you just choose to unleash your potential. UNITAR allows me to do so, and it can definitely do the same for you too!

My journey in UNITAR is colourful! I started with online classes because of the pandemic before eventually coming back to our lovely campus. Then, we're back to online again and before finally getting back here permanently!

Even online, UNITAR still provided us students with many activities such as the Masked Singer Competition, book review competition and online talks. These events allowed me to gain new insights and enlighten my (otherwise) boring life. Now, after settling back in campus, UNITAR gradually held more interesting physical activities such as the Wellness Artistry event, enhancing the students' leadership skills in a campus setting.

The most lovely programme in UNITAR is the SMST programme. This programme not only gives students opportunities to practice in real work settings, but also helps us to earn some pocket money. There are many more experiences that I have yet to go through in UNITAR, but as the phrase says, if you never try, you never know! UNITAR allows me to experience different colours of life, and you can, too!

Diploma in Interior Design — Semester 1

I'm doing pretty well in UNITAR! I love arts and expressing it, specifically through painting. I've been painting and selling art since I was 15. My dad plays hockey and currently is the coach of Malaysia's national hockey team, and I guess that's the reason why I've always had an intense passion for sports.

Arts & sports are things that I would never regret doing! Representing UNITAR at SUKIPT (Kejohanan Sukan Institusi Pendidikan Tinggi) in netball is a blessing for me, and I look forward to more experiences being made in this university in the coming future! xx

Author: Olivia Indang
 Matric No: MC220516898
 Poetry theme: Father

As bright as the color of budding sunflower,
 You lifted us your children with vibrancy despite your sorrow,
 Built to empower,
 You are indeed an exceedingly rare kind of flower.

Father you are our fire,
 Of which your ember lights our path clearer,
 Our time is never sufficient to return your favor,
 For the love we have for you is thanking you forever.

Father please remember,
 In sickness and in health we ask God to make you better,
 We would hope that in certain times of silence,
 Our toddler laughter will whisper you wonders that lanterns.

HAPPY Father's DAY

YOU MAY HAVE THOUGHT I DIDN'T SEE,
 OR THAT I HADN'T HEARD,
 LIFE LESSONS THAT YOU TAUGHT TO ME,
 BUT I GOT EVERY WORD.

PERHAPS YOU THOUGHT I MISSED IT ALL,
 AND THAT WE GROW APART,
 BUT AYAH, I PICKED UP EVERYTHING,
 IT'S WRITTEN ON MY HEART.

WITHOUT YOU, AYAH, I WOULD BE HERE
 THE PERSON I AM TODAY,
 YOU BUILT A STRONG MOTIVATION
 NO ONE CAN TAKE AWAYS.

I'VE GROWN UP WITH YOUR VALUES,
 AND I'M VERY GLAD I DID,
 SO HERE'S TO YOU, MY SUPERHERO
 FATHER,
 FROM YOUR CUTIEY GRATEFUL KID

Love Yourself

SELFIE CONTEST

CAPTION :

Nurul Sarah bt Yazid

One day, I was sitting alone in my bedroom, I was depressed and feel so worthless. Then I read an article about "love yourself" the article said, name 5 things that you love yourself. Guess what, I can't think of any. I broke into tears. I was hating myself, I look in the mirror I see a disappointment. As days goes by, I'm brainwashing to love myself more. And it work. Self love begins with action, one of the greatest self love is self care. Just starting with small acts, of taking care of myself better. Noticing and tending to our needs, treating myself like best friends, get to know myself better, and it has a chance to grow and explore. In conclusion, appreciation and self knowledge with time and practice will become part of our life everyday. If you can't love yourself, how in the hell are you gonna love somebody else.

Love Yourself

SELFIE CONTEST

CAPTION :

Muhammad Athif Faris bin Atiqul Haq

What do I love about myself? Generally, I've always loved the fact that I kept on making the best decision to keep my body and my mind healthy. To be healthy is to cherish and to love yourself. I could have ended up broken and pathetic. I could have been a heavy smoker that has cancer. I could have been addicted to drugs or even alcohol or even be in jail right now for committing a crime. But I chose to be a healthy and normal person. I have always realised that life has so much to offer. And to that, I hold that principle to myself to always be as healthy as possible to continue living until my last breath. To learn from my mistakes, to improve and to persevere. I have made so many good and bad decisions in life. Countless mistakes that could have negatively impacted me. But, I am always passionate to learn and improve. Of course, adversity can be painful sometimes. But, behind every smile, there is always sadness. Behind every sadness, there is always darkness. Behind every darkness, there is always a beam of light. Behind every beam of light, there is always happiness. And my happiness is to always be healthy. That is what I love about myself.

Love Yourself

SELFIE CONTEST

Nur Anis Akhita bt Muhammad Tahir

Love Yourself

SELFIE CONTEST

Nur Anis Akhita bt Muhammad Tahir

I don't even know how and where to start without activating the past traumas and it's pain. Actually now days I call it contrasts instead of pain or hardships. But I'm definitely grateful for my past journey that lead me here to the life I'm living and to the woman I'm now.

From within I've conquered my obstacles that were on my path until now and I know that I'll have some more to conquer as long as I'm alive. But now days since I've learned more about self acceptance, self love trough alignment with my higher self, instead of fighting with life, I don't carry anymore it's burden but hand it over to God, to the Universe. And I definitely don't try to control anything in my life anymore. I do my part of the work which is my self love journey and all the practices and discipline that involves it. Since I took responsibility for myself, learned and decided to live like this it has been a total relief, my life has totally changed into living my dream life, and mostly it has been an enormous healing from a past that was filled with so much self harm in every way that almost killed me literally... but like I said I learned a lot from my past and I'm still learning mostly to forgive myself which has been the hardest and my biggest obstacle ultimately.

I don't believe that telling my past stories will be that helpful for anyone. But what I believe is that whatever we have gone though even the worst ones, fall into the bottom of the bottom... we always have a choice to stand back up again even if we feel like all of our strength is gone and that we won't be able to stand anymore. The power of decision and hope for ourselves and the future can truly make miracles for us... for all of us no exceptions.

We're all deserving of love and happiness no matter what. We can conquer our own world with love and kindness. We are always moment ready to help others. And together holding hands we can make a difference.

Additionally, KMC has an online database where students can find journals especially when it is related to their assignments.

In order to borrow physical books, students have to give their matric card to the KMC, and after the staff has scanned it, they may swiftly borrow the books. If they surpass the deadline by more than one day, they will be charged 30 cents each day.

Wing B of the KMC also contains eight discussion rooms. In order to use discussion rooms, a group of students must consist of three to six persons, present their matriculation card at the desk, and acquire the room's key for approximately two hours of use. All new and current UNITAR International University students are welcome to use the KMC's physical books, e-books, and discussion rooms for academic purposes.

CAREER PLACEMENT CENTRE (CPC)

Career Placement Centre (CPC) is the primary satellite location for PERKESO's MyFutureJobs Portal. MyFutureJobs is a portal to connect unemployed Malaysians with employment opportunities and internships for students. In addition, UNITAR CPC will include the list of companies that have approached the CPC in the shared file that has been emailed to students. There are posters in front of CPC with QR codes that students can scan and the list of companies actively seeking internship students will be updated periodically.

Mr. Safrizal (AKA Mr. Riz) is an officer of Career Placement Centre in UNITAR International University. He is the person in charge for industrial relations and any industry partners that are available, in efforts to expand the network of opportunities for UNITARians.

In the MyFutureJobs portal, the students must register an account, then it will have options such as looking for full time jobs or internships. This is beneficial for those who stay outside of Lembah Klang, Selangor or those staying at other states.

UNITARians can easily explore more information on companies that are looking for employees and have approached UNITAR directly. Students can also look for their internship or jobs by themselves especially using the MyFutureJobs portal.
